Thank you so much for making. The Portrait tells the Stephen story mainly in terms of the three Jesuit schools that Stephen, and Joyce himself, attended in Ireland: Clongowes Wood, an exclusive elementary boarding-school; Belvedere College, or high school, as we might say, Dublin; and, finally, University College, Dublin, the Catholic University that John Henry Newman founded for Ireland in the early s, which had been rescued by the Jesuits from extinction in and carried on under their administration for the next troubled quarter-century until Although it might look at first sight as though Stephen is as hard on his Irish Jesuits as Ernest

Pontifex is on his Anglican schoolteacher divines, this judgment would go beyond the evidence of the Portrait .
