The Secret Gift

Emigrants from such towns and villages, leaving before such change occurred, therefore never experienced it directly and, indeed, brought many archaic forms of folk culture and dialect to the Americas-aspects of culture that in their own towns of origin were to undergo such radical change in the post-World War II era. All of Indonesia's islands are now linked by a network of mutant coral called "The Web", described as a lawless hotbed of crime, although a city called Djakarta did exist there at one point but was lost on Judgement Day.

Most customers are smart enough to go where they will get the best deal. While very intimate-even startlingly intimate at times-the voices of these poems are constantly taking a step backward, wrestling for a measure of distance and perspective. The Cliff House has been perched on the bluffs in the northwestern part of The City since and has gone through many transformations as the dining scene evolved.
