Their role sets them apart from visitors to earlier wars, whose presence seldom had significance beyond their personal lives. We also benefited from the Continental Pro status just a couple of years ago, and while I very much appreciated the chances we were given as a Continental team back in I think it is a logical progression. OK, close. Cestius had to do something to deal with the unrest in the south, but even if he had reason to think that he could defeat the Judaeans irregulars leading their side of the unrest he might not have desired a major military victory.
