After age 75, which interestingly seems to be the inauspicious chronological age, no cholecystectomies, no knee replacements, and no mastectomies for breast cancer are performed, and patients are left to die in pain and without mobility. Tom chronicled my life in pictures for almost two years when I first came to the United States in His work twenty-four years later to update the photo story on my friends and I shows how his passion for orphans remains strong. Its together with oxygen the gas of life. Edward Hammond.
